INTRODUCTION

---

If the job could talk, it would clearly define the knowledge, hard skills, people skills, behavior and culture needed for superior performance. Your unbiased input regarding the specific requirements of the job in question has been applied to the TTI TriMetrix Job benchmarking process. The result is an evaluative report that analyzes a total of 37 separate areas in Sections 1 through 3. Additional feedback on each area is presented in Sections 4 through 6. Suggested interview questions that pertain to each area complete this report in Sections 7 through 9.

SECTION 1: JOB ATTRIBUTES HIERARCHY (23 AREAS)

This section presents 23 key job attributes and quantifies their importance to this specific job. Each job has a unique ranking of attributes, reflecting different levels of capacities required by different jobs for superior performance.

SECTION 2: REWARDS/CULTURE HIERARCHY (6 AREAS)

This section clearly identifies the rewards/culture of the job, which defines its sources of motivation. It clarifies "why" and "in what kind of environment" this job will produce success.

SECTION 3: BEHAVIORAL HIERARCHY (8 AREAS)

This section explores the behavioral traits demanded of the job. The higher the ranking, the more important the behavioral trait will be to the job for stress reduction and superior performance.

The results of Sections 1 through 3 (above) are ranked on a scale, reflecting the unique levels of applicability and importance to the job. These rankings illustrate what is essential for this job to deliver superior performance and maximum value to your organization.

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

Below are suggested interview questions on each of the top seven attributes. Use these as a guide to write questions that could be more job-specific. Once the list is completed, assure that all candidates respond to the same questions.

1. SELF MANAGEMENT: The ability to prioritize and complete tasks in order to deliver desired outcomes within allotted time frames.
  - Give me a specific example of a project that you were responsible for organizing from beginning to end. How did you go about it? How did you deal with changes that arose? How did you ensure that the project stayed on track? What was the final outcome? What did you learn from this experience?
  - Have you ever faced a day in which you just couldn't get everything done that you had planned? How did you handle it? (If the position sometimes requires extra hours, simply ask the candidate if they are able to fulfill that requirement).
  - Do you consider yourself to be a good time manager? Share with me the planning system you use and show me how you use it.
  - We have all had times where it was necessary to balance work and personal or family time. Give me an example of a time when you had too many things to do in both areas of your life and describe how you went about prioritizing your time.
  - How much time do you spend getting organized on a daily basis? When do you do it? What impact do you think this habit has on your results?
  - What is the difference between activity and results? How do you personally define this difference?

2. PERSONAL ACCOUNTABILITY: A measure of the capacity to be answerable for personal actions.
  - Tell me about a time when it was necessary to admit to others that you had made a mistake. How did you handle it?
  - Give an example of a situation where others had made an error or mistake and you had to take the blame for their actions. How did you feel about doing that?
  - What is the worst business decision you ever made? What made it the worst? Would knowing what you do now have helped you to avoid making that decision?
  - Give me an example of a lesson you have learned from making a mistake. What did you do differently going forward?
  - Give me an example of someone you know whose personal actions led to disastrous results. How answerable is that person for what happened? What advice would you give to that person?
  - What person from history do you most admire for taking the blame for a failure? What did taking the blame do for that person?

Section 7

3. RESILIENCY: The ability to quickly recover from adversity.
  - Share with me a time you have faced a great deal of personal criticism from others. How did you handle it? Did you modify or change your position in the face of this criticism?
  - Give me an example of a time when you had an idea and had to abandon it. How did you recover?
  - Tell me about a specific setback you faced at work. How long did it take you to get past it?
  - Describe a time when you received negative feedback from your manager. Did you feel it was accurate or warranted? What actions did you take as a result of receiving the feedback?
  - Give me an example of a time when you were faced to take the initiative in the face of a mounting tide of adversity or criticism. How, exactly, did you move past it?
  - Do you consider yourself to be a resilient person? Who is the most resilient person you ever knew? How do you compare to that person in resiliency?

4. DIPLOMACY AND TACT: The ability to treat others fairly, regardless of personal biases or beliefs.
  - Give me an example of a time when you had to exhibit diplomacy while under pressure on the job. How did you do that?
  - Give me an example of a time when you or someone you know set aside their personal agenda for the sake of larger, business-oriented issues? What did you think of that?
  - How do you identify key stakeholders in a relationship? Give me an example of a time when you not only identified them but also maintained a positive relationship with a diverse group of people at all levels of an organization.
  - Give me an example of a time when you overcame internal resistance or "politics" to an idea or project. How did you go about doing that?
  - Is there ever a time when your personal agenda should supersede the needs of your organization? If so, when?
  - Describe the most politically sensitive situation in which you ever found yourself. What were the three things you did to ensure that you maintained your position in that situation without offending anyone?

Section 7

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

---

5. INTERPERSONAL SKILLS: The ability to interact with others in a positive manner.
  - Describe for me the most difficult business relationship you have ever had to deal with. Why was it so difficult? What did you do to make the relationship go more smoothly?
  - What is the most stressful or difficult situation where you had to maintain your composure at work? What did you do to maintain the composure? How do you think you did? If you had it to do over, what would you do the same? Differently?
  - What is your single biggest communication strength? How do you know? What is your greatest business success acquired as a result of this strength?
  - Describe the most difficult, demanding person you have ever encountered. What made them so difficult? What did you do to better understand and relate to them?
  - Give me an example of a situation when a personal relationship you had or developed was helpful in a business situation. How did you cultivate that relationship without appearing to be patronizing?
  - Give me a specific example of a situation where you had to develop a productive relationship with someone whose point of view was different from your own. How did you go about sustaining the relationship?

6. TEAMWORK: The ability to cooperate with others to meet objectives.
  - Describe a team in which you have participated that you feel was effective. What made it a good team? Describe a team that was less effective. What was the difference between the two?
  - What, in your opinion, is the most important thing to always remember when you are on a team? What is the worst mistake a person on a team can make?
  - Have you ever seen someone violate a trust relationship with another team member? What was the trust issue that was violated? What was the result? How could it have been avoided?
  - Give me an example of a group or team decision that was made and you felt that it was wrong or was something you disagreed with. How did you handle it? Were there others who agreed with you? What was the end result?
  - List some things you think are important to remember in order to be a productive team member?
  - What would you do if you were on a team and one of the members failed to meet the promises and commitments they had made to the others and did this consistently?

Section 7

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

7. CONTINUOUS LEARNING: The ability to take personal responsibility and action toward learning and implementing new ideas, methods and technologies.
- Tell me about the last book you read or seminar you attended. What was it? What were two important ideas you have learned? How did you put these things into practice?
  - Describe for me how you have invested in your own professional growth in the last 12 months.
  - What are the 3 biggest trends or concepts that you need to learn about in order to stay ahead in your areas of expertise? How do you plan to learn them?
  - Give me an example of a creative or innovative way in which you applied something you learned.
  - Tell me about the most exciting book you have read in the last year that has helped you on the job. What led you to read this book?
  - What do you enjoy learning about? Why is that? How does it help you?

Section 8

REWARDS/CULTURE QUESTIONS

Read the following suggested interview questions as they relate to the rewards/culture environment of the job. Modify the questions to be more job-specific and assure that all candidates are asked the same questions.

1. TRADITIONAL/REGULATORY

- Is there an absolute right and absolute wrong? How do you decide what is right and what is wrong?
- Tell me about "rules." Give me an example of a rule that you follow relative to managing or leading others. Where did you learn that rule? How flexible is it?
- Have there been situations in your work experience when you were absolutely convinced that your rules or standards were superior to your employers? If so, why were they better? Were you able to convince your employees that yours were better?
- Do you sometimes feel that things would be easier and better if there were fewer rules and procedures? Please elaborate.

2. THEORETICAL

- Which is more important, action or knowledge?
- Would you consider yourself to be an expert in something? What is it? How did you go about gaining the knowledge?
- Tell me what you especially like or enjoy about learning things. What topics or subjects do you enjoy?
- How comfortable are you in taking the time, energy and effort required to master a subject or topic you currently know very little about? How about one in which you have very little interest?

3. INDIVIDUALISTIC/POLITICAL

- What role does being in control of a situation play in your job satisfaction? How important is it for you to control your own destiny?
- How important is independence to you? Power? Influencing others? What would be your level of satisfaction with a job if you had none of these?
- How good are you in taking directions from others? How much do you like doing so?
- How do you go about influencing others to act? Give me a concrete, real-world example of a time when you were able to move a group of people to action and exactly how you did it.

Section 9

BEHAVIORAL QUESTIONS

Read the following suggested interview questions as they relate to the most desired behavioral traits to perform the job. Modify the questions to be more job-specific and assure that all candidates are asked the same questions.

1. FREQUENT INTERACTION WITH OTHERS

- How do you handle frequent interruptions by other people? How about your response to people who ask you question after question?
- Are you more comfortable with details or people with the big picture or with bits of data?

2. VERSATILITY

- Are you patient or impatient? Give me an example of how you handle slower-moving people. Would you consider yourself to be opinionated? Strong-willed? Explain.
- How important is it for you to be systematic? Describe a system you have set up, used and been successful with in any previous job you have had.

3. CUSTOMER ORIENTED

- How important is it for people to like you? Which is more important, being trusted or liked? Why do you say that?
- Do you stop and listen to others or express your opinions quickly? Give me examples and situations where both of these situations occurred. What was the outcome?
