Benefits

Participation: One weekend each month and two weeks of active duty for training annually or 26 - 48 days on a flexible schedule each year as an IMA. Each drill weekend or Unit Training Assembly (UTA) is equal to four days of active duty base pay.

Promotions: There is no testing for promotion in the AF Reserve. You must otherwise meet required time in grade, time in service, applicable PME and skill level requirements.

Different from Active Duty: The Air Force Reserve does not have CJR's, DOS rollbacks or HYT. There are no involuntary PCS moves and deployments are primarily filled on a volunteer basis.

Tuition Assistance: Participating Reservists are eligible to receive $250.00 per semester hour for Undergraduate and Graduate Degree Programs with an annual cap of $4,500.00.

College Enrollment: As a member of the Air Force Reserve, you are automatically enrolled in Community College of the Air Force that offers 66 associate degrees in applied science programs. You will receive college credit for training in your AFSC.

Kicker: AFSC's with prefixes 1A, 1N, 1T, 2A, 2F, 2T, 2W, 3E, and 4N are eligible for a kicker of $350 per month if attending school full time. This payment is added to either your Post 9/11 GI Bill or your Reserve GI Bill.

Medical & Dental Coverage: You are authorized treatment of injuries or illnesses that occur during training periods. You may enroll in Tri-Care Reserve Select and purchase medical and dental insurance for a monthly premium; single $48 and family + member $218.

Life Insurance: For a monthly fee, you can receive up to $400,000 Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance (SGLI) coverage. Immediate family members automatically receive $10,000 coverage at no cost.

Uniforms: All unserviceable uniform items are replaced and necessary alterations are performed; all at no cost to the member.

Meals and Lodging: Reserve members eat free in the base dining facility on drill weekends. Members who live out of the commuting distance are provided with lodging during the training weekend and two-week annual tour at no cost.

MWR, BX, Commissary & Space A Travel: Unlimited shopping privileges and use of all military recreational facilities and services for Reserve members and their families. Reserve members continue to be eligible to be to travel on military aircraft on a space-available basis. Restrictions apply for family members traveling in CONUS.

Retirement: Active duty time and Reserve time count toward the 20 years needed for a Reserve retirement. Retired Reserve members begin to receive monthly retirement checks and full benefits starting at age 60.

Civilian Employment Protection: Reserve members are protected from civilian job discrimination for serving in the military under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (USERRA).

Thrift Savings Plan: Reserve members are eligible to contribute a percentage of their pay to TSP, a federal employee retirement and investment system.

Transition Assistance Management Program: Members separating from active duty who join the Air Force Reserve without a break in service are eligible for six months of premium free healthcare benefits under TAMP.
